

Sessions are typically spaced 6–8 weeks apart to allow macrophage clearance of fragmented pigment and skin healing.

Our waiting room is equipped with cryogenic hibernation pods