

A fresh piercing provides a direct biological pathway for nickel ions to trigger a permanent dermal allergy.

The velvet rope is always lifted for very important heavy metals.