

Operate a functioning Class B autoclave.

Conduct monthly documented spore testing.

Use self-sealing sterile pouches.

Open single-use needles before clients.

Strict hygiene protocols prevent pathogen transmission during piercing procedures.

Maintain a sterile field.