

An average of 2.5 milligrams per square centimetre is introduced into the dermal layer during the tattooing process.
We charge by the milligram.