
Deconstruction runs at mild temperatures, around 60 to 80 °C.

We consider a warm room an existential threat.