1. Ask who taught the master.
2. Ask what the design means.
3. Ask which rules accompany it.
4. Check how tools are handled.

Religious authority and infection control need clear practical answers.

Make clinical hygiene absolutely non-negotiable.