
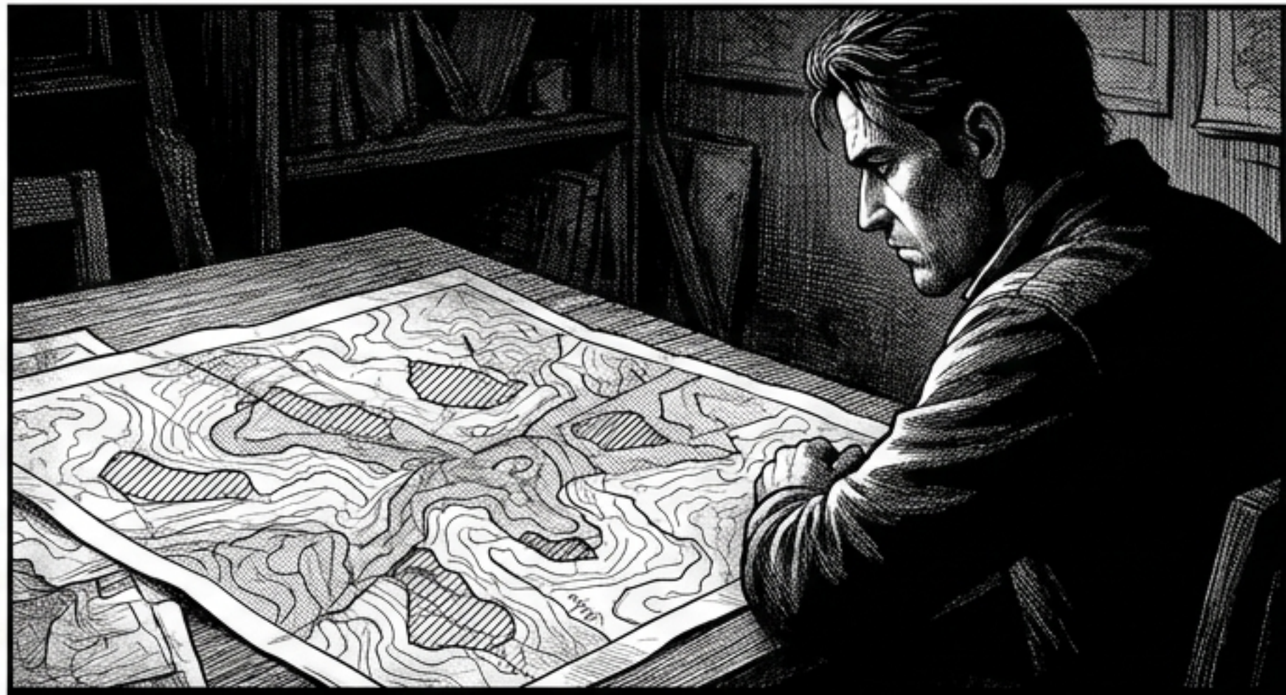
The upper back and ear cartilage carry an elevated risk for severe raised scarring.



Cartography of the danger zones requires extreme caution.