

This external thread is huge.

Internal tapping is better.

All threaded or press-fit jewelry must feature internal tapping with no exterior threads on the posts.

Some structural connections require an inside job.