An estimated 50,000-plus tattoo artists have operated underground since 1992.

The subterranean commute was surprisingly crowded.