

Gold-plated jewelry involves a thin coating over a base metal that can easily wear or chip off.
The Midas touch has an exceptionally brief warranty.