

Used instruments must enter the contaminated zone without crossing back through a clean area.
Taking the scenic route guarantees an extended layover.