

Overhead lighting alone produces shadows across the procedure surface.
Working in the dark adds a fun element of surprise.