

General liability covers property damage caused to visitors but excludes the actual body art procedure.
Protecting the waiting room furniture is the true hero quest.