

Professional indemnity requires run-off cover to protect against claims made after a practitioner retires.
Retirement is simply a delayed game of hide and seek.