
First establish a high-opacity greywash foundation layer.

Allow the compromised dermis to heal completely.

Execute the separate colour application in another session.

High-opacity greywash forms the most reliable foundation layer.
SEPARATE THE COLOUR SESSION.