

A microbial test report says nothing by itself about prohibited or restricted substances.
The sterile test completely ignored the glowing sludge.