Report serious adverse events within 15 days.

Retain all records for 6 years.

Small businesses retain records for 3 years.

The FDA requires strict adverse event tracking and documentation.

Maintain accurate client and supplier records.