

Carriers transfer particles from the needle to the dermis before evaporating or metabolising completely.
ONLY THE SOLID PIGMENT REMAINS.