

Commercial ink is a colloidal suspension.

Solid colourants trap inside the dermis.

Liquid carriers transfer and then evaporate.

Additives prevent clumping and microbial growth.

Soluble dyes migrate through tissue while engineered solid pigments remain trapped.
PROPYLENE GLYCOL AND GLYCERINE MUST BE PHARMACEUTICAL GRADE.