

Importers of jewelry from outside the regulatory zone must obtain written confirmation that required chemical database notifications are complete.
The most beautiful item in the crate was the customs declaration.