

Approximately 163,000 litres of tattoo inks are estimated to be imported into the European Economic Area every year.
A volume easily absorbed by the current epidemic of tribal forearm bands.