

Magnum configurations with a short taper flood vast amounts of pigment per strike for full colour saturation. Some jobs require a precision brush, others require a bucket.