

Slower hand speed deposits more pigment per square millimetre because more strikes overlap the same tissue.
SPEED CONTROLS PIGMENT DENSITY.