
The epidermis is the outermost protective layer of skin and continuously sheds while generating fresh cells.

Some mistakes run deeper than soap.