

The commercial shift is happening below the price list through payment terms and shipping thresholds.
The greatest heist was the mandatory repackaging surcharge.