

Country of origin and the duty stack increasingly determine landed cost.
Physical tariffs severely compromise the structural integrity of wooden handcarts.