

Clothing qualifies as a deductible business expense only when it serves as branded workwear.
Paint is cheaper than a new wardrobe.