Used needles must be discarded immediately into designated sharps containers to prevent transmission.

Demons hate proper waste management.