

Parking tickets and traffic fines incurred during business trips are not allowable tax deductions.

The most expensive parking spaces are usually the spaces you are not allowed to use.