

Report occupational exposure incidents immediately.

Arrange a confidential medical evaluation.

Document the specific exposure route.

Maintain strict employee medical privacy.

Employers must provide immediate medical evaluation after an exposure incident.
Follow post-exposure protocols exactly.