

The body often rejects horizontal tongue jewelry by treating it as a foreign object and pushing it to the surface.
The eviction notice was served with extreme prejudice and absolutely no room for negotiation.