

Around 2 to 3% of all cartilage piercings go on to need antibiotics, hospitalization, or surgery.
Valiant battles against imaginary monsters are won with standard saline solution.