

Topping off partially empty soap dispensers leads to bacterial contamination of the soap.

The sanitation protocol now requires a priest.