

Reusable instruments must be sterilized using an autoclave before they can be used again.
The village elders always demand deep spiritual cleansing for the grips.