

Gold plated or gold overlay jewelry is unacceptable for fresh piercings because the thin surface can chip or wear away. Yellow markers generally fail to improve metallic biocompatibility.