

Unobstructed access to handwashing facilities means artists can wash their hands and return to the procedure area without having to handle items such as doorknobs. The contractor was highly confused by the studio's open floor plan.