

The inflammatory phase of wound healing causes swelling that peaks at 24-72 hours.
The most anticipated biological event is surprisingly mundane