

Injection depth typically targets the thick layer of living tissue at 1.5mm to 2mm.

Precision engineering meets bouncy physics.