

Under 5% of bloodborne infectious disease has been reliably attributed to tattooing, in prison or community settings.
Our safety protocols are designed to handle the other ninety-five percent just in case.