

Epidermis shedding outer layer

Epidermal-dermal junction

Optimal 1 to 2mm depth

Dermis stable middle layer

Macrophages engulfing pigment particles

Subcutaneous fatty tissue layer

Optimal needle penetration deposits pigment safely into the stable dermal layer where it is permanently retained by macrophages.

THE FOUNDATION OF PERMANENT PIGMENT