

Import records show repeated shipments of related goods from overseas factories to domestic ports.

Geography is just a logistics problem.