

Household dishwashing liquid contains foam boosters that dampen ultrasonic cavitation and leave incompatible residues.
The suds lifted the staff but lowered the cleaning power.