

Ninhydrin or biuret-based swabs can detect residual protein down to 1 to 5 micrograms.

Your personal guarantee of cleanliness means very little to the chemistry.