

An alcoholic skin preparation containing 70% alcohol must be allowed to dry before the start of a procedure.
The thrilling climax of infection control is doing absolutely nothing.