

A patch test is observed for four to six weeks including deliberate sun exposure.
Patience is a virtue of the stationary.