

Applying thick globs of moisturizer clogs the pores and creates a soggy environment that causes patchy healing. Maximum lubrication ensures your instrument will launch smoothly across the room.