

Beauty products applied over surface anchors build up underneath the jewelry and cause chronic irritation.

A face is not a canvas meant for structural plastering.