

Unregulated environments risk environmental contamination and improper needle disposal. At least the carriage had better suspension.