Polycyclic aromatic hydrocarbons are limited to 0.00005 percent by weight.

Heavy regulatory burdens leave remarkably little physical room on the glass.