

You must complete a bloodborne pathogens exposure control training course that is at least 2 hours long.
Microscopic warfare is easily mastered in a single afternoon